

Solicitations Policy

No organization or individual may conduct a public sale or solicitation of any kind in the library, nor will any library personnel accept the responsibility of selling anything owned by an organization or individual.