

Proclamation for National Library Week 2010

WHEREAS, libraries everywhere play an important role in supporting the quality of life in their communities;

WHEREAS, our nation's school, academic, public and special libraries make a difference in the lives of millions of Americans;

WHEREAS, librarians are trained professionals, helping people of all ages and backgrounds find and interpret the information they need to live, learn and work in a challenging economy;

WHEREAS, libraries serve as technology hubs for people in need of free Web access, computer training, and assistance finding job resources;

WHEREAS, libraries are places for opportunity, education, self-help and lifelong learning;

WHEREAS, library use is up nationwide among all types of library users, continuing a decade-long trend;

WHEREAS, libraries, librarians, library workers and supporters across America are celebrating National Library Week.

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved that I Mayor Dan Specht proclaim National Library Week, April 11-17, 2010. I encourage all residents to visit the Yankton Community Library this week and every week to take advantage of the wonderful library resources available @ your library.
